The 2011 Scientific Assembly of the Astronomical Society of the Republic of China (ASROC2011) will be held at National Science and Technology Museum (NSTM) in Kaoshiung on May 27 – 29 (Fri.-Sun.), 2011. This is the annual event for all astronomers and astrophysicists in Taiwan to report their most recent discoveries and research results, to exchange ideas, and also to incubate collaborations. Oral and poster presentations in all areas of astronomy and astrophysics are solicited. All of you are cordially invited to attend ASROC2011.

The meeting will include two plenary talks, one popular-science talk, scientific sessions, poster presentation, a business meeting, and an education workshop. Election of the society council members for 2011-2014 will be conducted during the meeting. You are all welcome to suggest candidate names to current ASROC Executive Councilors, who are the same as the program committee members listed below, by end February 2011. The ASROC2011 web site will be open in mid March 2011 for on-line registration and abstract submission. All the contributions in the ASROC2011 meeting, including oral talks and poster presentations, will be published in the Journal of Taipei Astronomical Museum. Further details will be announced in the second circular. Please visit the society web site at <http://www.asroc.org.tw/> for more information about ASROC.
