

Astronomical Society of Republic of China 2010 Scientific Assembly (ASROC2010)

Location: Institute of Astronomy and Astrophysics, Academia Sinica (Taida Campus)

Time: May 28 - 30, 2010

The 2010 Scientific Assembly of the Astronomical Society of Republic of China (ASROC2010) will be held at Institute of Astronomy and Astrophysics, Academia Sinica (ASIAA) on May 28 - 30, 2010. This is the annual event for all astronomers and astrophysicists in Taiwan to demonstrate their most recent discoveries and observations, to report their latest research results and to exchange ideas, also to organize cooperation when desirable. Oral presentations and conference posters in all areas of astronomy and astrophysics are solicited. ASROC2010 is an excellent venue, too, for students, in particular graduate students, to present their research finding or progress from their thesis studies.

The meeting will include plenary talks, scientific sessions, poster presentation, a business meeting, and an educational symposium. The plenary talks feature (1) Prof. Paul Ho, Director of Astronomy and Astrophysics, Academia Sinica and (2) Prof. Wei-Hsin Sun, Graduate Institute of Astrophysics, National Taiwan University.

ASROC2010 website will be ready by mid-March, and on-line registration will be available from March 22, 2010. Participants of the scientific assembly should submit their abstracts and register on-line by April 30, 2010. A registration fee of NT$500 should be paid on site. In addition, beginning from this year, the contributions in the ASROC meeting, including oral talks and poster presentations will be published in the Journal of Taipei Astronomical Museum. Details about the page limits and format of the papers will be described in the second circular and the website of the Astronomical Society.

The Astronomical Society cordially invites you to participate in this annual event with all the many interesting and exciting activities. For more details and updated information, please visit the ASROC website at <http://www.asroc.org.tw/>.
